

PRINT RESOURCES – USEFUL CALL NUMBERS

356 – Foot forces and warfare

357 – Mounted forces and warfare

940.4 – Military history of World War I

940.426 – 1915, including Gallipoli

KEYWORDS FOR SEARCHING

Anzac

World War 1914 – 1918

Soldiers

Armed conflict

World War and place name or causes or campaigns or peace (or another keyword of your choice)

For junior items use the advanced search and select JNF or search first and then Refine

ONLINE RESOURCES

There are and will be many websites dedicated to ANZAC and World War 1914-1918.

Be prepared to visit a few to get the best results.

Unit Histories are being digitised. Search Trove to find online versions.

Trove – <http://trove.nla.gov.au>

Australian War Memorial - <http://www.awm.gov.au/>

Unit histories, name searching, educational resources, online exhibitions and more...

Mapping our Anzacs - <http://mappingouranzacs.naa.gov.au/>

Name searching. Each name is being mapped and a social history created

National Archives of Australia – <http://naa.gov.au/>

Name searching and fully digitised World War I personnel files

Discovering Anzacs - <http://discoveringanzacs.naa.gov.au/>

Search by location of birth or enlistment (and by name)

ANZAC Centenary, the Bendigo Story

http://www.anzacentenarybendigo.com.au/Local\_Stories

State Library of Victoria Research Guides - http://guides.slv.vic.gov.au/wwone\_soldiers